

I would love to have this house one day, yes.

I could have a job cooking at Church's to make money to live in my life.

I love me today. I know God loves me and Jesus loves me today.

My sister Tina makes me very happy.

Sometimes I feel low about myself when I take my medicines. It's hard for me. But I remember that God woke me up today to start another day.