

I love my family. They are my happiness and my reasons for living. I have faith in my family and our future together.

I have overcome so many obstacles and these awards are both proof and reminders of my accomplishments.