

NOTE TO APPLICANTS: The UofM TRIO Student Success Programs are federally funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education. The program is designed to serve undergraduate students with an academic need who meet at least one of the following requirements: 1) income eligibility as determined by federal government guidelines, 2) first generation college student (neither parent/guardian has a 4-year degree), and/or 3) a documented disability. In addition, applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and accepted to or enrolled at The U of M. According to federal regulations, The UofM SSP programs can serve only 320 students annually. It is strongly suggested that applicants submit completed applications prior to the start of the Fall/Spring semester.
