

ACCENTUATE THE POSITIVE IN REHABILITATION EDUCATION AND PRACTICE

September 16, 2016   Friday   4:30 pm – 7 pm

Why We Need a Bigger Tent: Building an Inclusive Community in Rehabilitation Education
Karen Barrett, Rh.D.

September 17, 2016   Saturday   8:30 am – 5 pm

Uncharted Futures: The Voice of Rehabilitation in a Transformed World   Alan Bruce, Ph.D.

What Makes Vocational Rehabilitation Education Unique?   Panel Discussion led by Board Members of RCC (Rehabilitation Counseling Coalition), Bob Paré, M.S., Ray Feroz, Ph.D., Tarea Stout, M.S.

Rehab Ed 2025: Technology, Globalization, and Disability J. Chad Duncan, Ph.D. & Alan Bruce, Ph.D.

Ethical Inquiry for Practitioners and Educators
Regina Robertson, Ph.D. & Michelle Marmé, Ph.D.

Accreditation: Ethical Opportunities and Options
David Perry, Ph.D., Penny Willmering, Ph.D., & Chrisann Schiro-Geist, Ph.D.

September 18, 2016   Sunday   8:30 am – Noon

Research Opportunities and Necessities
Gina Oswald, Ph.D. & J.Chad Duncan, Ph.D.

The University of Memphis Institute on Disability and the Rehabilitation Counseling Coalition welcome you to a summit on rehabilitation practice and education.

Stimulating presentations will lead to thought-provoking discussions and opportunities to re-visit our values and principles. Let's take time to carefully consider the future of rehabilitation education !

For more information and to register:
<http://www.abve.net/pressrelease.asp?NID=91> or go to the American Board of Vocational Experts home page www.abve.net and look under Latest News

