Purpose

This training material highlights creating discussions and forums within eCourseware.

Audience

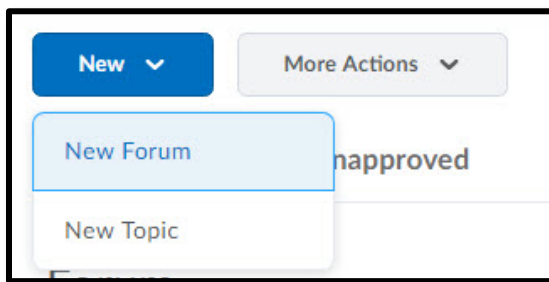

This training material is designed for University staff and faculty using eCourseware.

Creating Discussion Forums and Topics

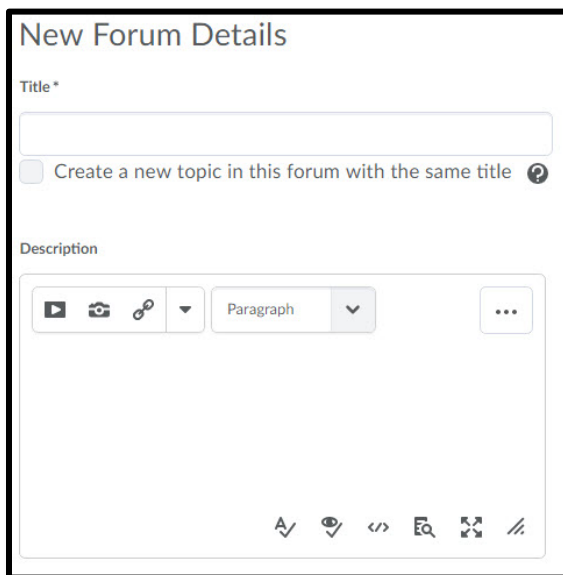

Create a New Forum

Use forums to organize your discussion topics into categories. Your course can have multiple forums and topics, but you must create a forum before you can create a topic since all topics belong to forums.

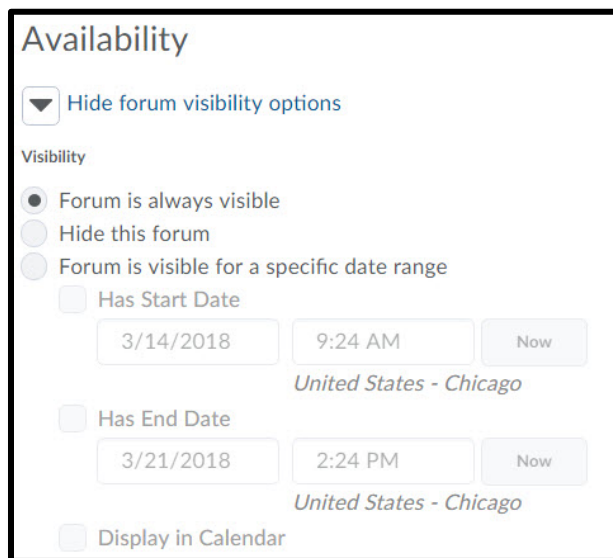

1. On the Discussions List page, click New, and choose New Forum from drop-down menu.

2. Enter a Title and Description for your forum.
3. Select the Create a new topic in this forum with the same title check box to automatically create a topic in the forum with the same name.

A screenshot of a form titled 'New Forum Details'. The form has a 'Title*' field with a text input box. Below the title field is a checkbox labeled 'Create a new topic in this forum with the same title' with a question mark icon. Below the checkbox is a 'Description' section with a rich text editor. The rich text editor has a toolbar with icons for video, image, link, paragraph, and more options. The text area is empty. At the bottom of the rich text editor, there are icons for text color, background color, bold, italic, link, unlink, and list.

4. Options section options:
 - Select the Allow anonymous posts check box to enable anonymous posting to topics in the forum.
 - Note: You cannot evaluate anonymous posts.
 - Select the “A moderator must approve individual posts before they display in the forum” check box to require moderators approve posts before they appear in forum topics.
 - Select the “Users must start a thread before they can read and reply to other threads in each topic” check box if you want users to start a thread before they can read and respond to other threads in each topic.
5. Select a Visibility option for your forum.

After clicking “Show forum visibility options” select from the options.

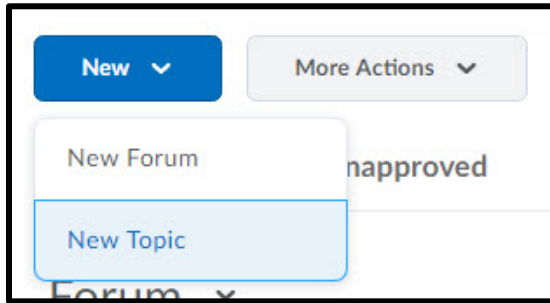

Note: If you select Forum is visible for a specific date range, select the Has Start Date and Has End Date check boxes to set your availability. You can also have dates Display in Calendar.

6. Select forum locking option:
 - Select Lock forum to the lock the forum upon creation. It remains locked until you select Unlock forum.
 - Select Unlock forum for a specific date range to open the forum within a date range. Select the Has Start Date and Has End Date check boxes to set your forum availability.

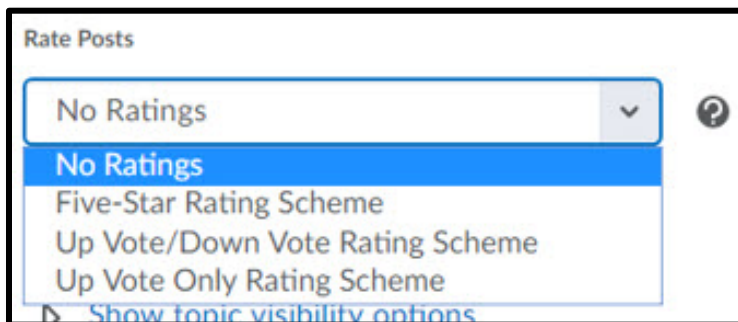

7. Click Save and Close or Save and Add Topic.

Create a New Topic

1. On the Discussions List page, click New Topic from the New button.

2. Select the Forum you want to place your topic in from the drop-down list. Click New Forum if you want to create a new forum for your topic.
3. Enter a Title and Description for your topic.
4. In the Options section:
 - Select the Allow anonymous posts check box to enable anonymous posting to the topic.
 - Note: You cannot evaluate anonymous posts.
 - Select the A moderator must approve individual posts before they display in the forum check box to require moderators approve posts before they appear in the topic.
 - Select the Users must start a thread before they can read and reply to other threads check box if you want users to start a thread before they can read and respond to other threads in the topic.
5. Select a rating scheme from the Rating Scheme drop-down list:

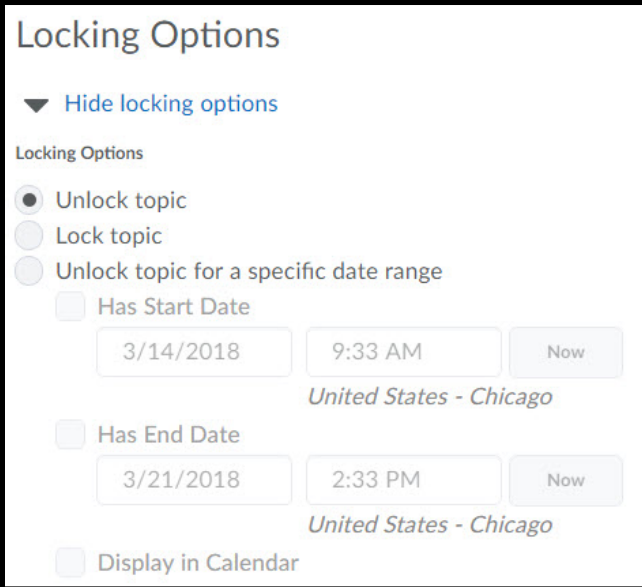

- No Ratings Hides all rating controls from users.
- Five-Star Rating Scheme Allows users to assign each post a score out of five.
- Up Vote/Down Vote Rating Scheme Allows users to push posts up or down in rank.
- Up Vote Only Rating Scheme Allows users to push posts upwards in rank.

6. Select a Visibility option for your topic.

Note: If you select Topic is visible for a specific date range, select the Has Start Date and Has End Date check boxes to set your availability. You can also have dates Display in Calendar.

7. Select topic Locking Options:

The screenshot shows a dialog box titled "Locking Options". At the top, there is a dropdown menu labeled "Hide locking options" with a downward arrow. Below this, the text "Locking Options" is displayed. There are three radio button options: "Unlock topic" (which is selected), "Lock topic", and "Unlock topic for a specific date range". Under the "Unlock topic for a specific date range" option, there are two checkboxes: "Has Start Date" and "Has End Date". Both are checked. For "Has Start Date", there are three input fields: a date field containing "3/14/2018", a time field containing "9:33 AM", and a "Now" button. Below these fields is the text "United States - Chicago". For "Has End Date", there are three input fields: a date field containing "3/21/2018", a time field containing "2:33 PM", and a "Now" button. Below these fields is the text "United States - Chicago". At the bottom of the dialog, there is a checkbox labeled "Display in Calendar" which is not checked.

- Select Lock topic to the lock the forum when it is created. It remains locked until you select Unlock topic.
- Select Unlock topic for a specific date range to open the topic within a date range. Select the Has Start Date and Has End Date check boxes to set your topic availability.

8. Click Save and Close or Save and New.
