Trainings

For all events and training sessions, visit the CTL events web page.

The CTL has added additional trainings for the class eCourseware Essentials. During Spring Break, this class will be offered:

Administration Building Room 178, Tuesday, March 10, 2020 from 9am-10:30am

Administration Building Room 178, Wednesday, March 11, 2020 from 4pm-5:30pm

Online (Sign up on Learning Curve), Friday, March 13, 2020 from 1pm – 2pm

Consultations

For specific questions, faculty may visit the CTL website and take advantage of our Tuesday with a Trainer, available on Tuesdays from 8am – 8pm. Visit the Teaching and Learning homepage and see the bottom of the screen for the chat link.

For departmental or team training, submit a request through the ticketing system using this direct link to request a consultation with CTL.

Keep Teaching Webpage

Visit the CTL webpage to see resources that allow you to Keep Teaching in the event of an unforeseen circumstance or event.

Other items on this page:

1. A list of Department Aides, specially trained individuals appointed by deans or chairs to serve the faculty as eCourseware guides and facilitators.

2. Multiple options to help you select the best path for increasing your class's online presence.

3. An extensive collection of training documentation and video resources.
