Teaching Workshop
Deb Tollefsen distributed a flyer on "Small Teaching" workshop. Small changes can make a big impact. The workshop would be great for new teachers, students in the Education program, teaching GAs, etc. It would be important to get faculty--especially in the "critical 30" (gen ed) classes--into this workshop. Joanna Gikas asked if the University has something to replace the Advance Learning Center (which is no longer available) as there is a need for training in the classroom outside of online training? Dick Irwin : Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning.
