

Free Tax Preparation Services Offered by Impact America

Impact America - Tennessee is again providing free tax preparation services for working families in the Memphis area in partnership with Rhodes College, the University of Memphis, Christian Brothers University, St. Mary's Episcopal School, the Junior League of Memphis, Graduate Memphis, the South Memphis Alliance and JUICE Orange Mound.

Services are now available for working families and individuals making up to $54,000 a year. Interested individuals should call 844-TAXES-TN to schedule a free appointment or visit impactamerica.com/free-tax-services for more information. Daytime, evening and weekend hours for tax preparation are available.

The tax preparation locations are:

- Binghampton Development Corp., 280 Tillman St.
- Soulsville Town Centre, 915 E. McLemore Ave.
- Ed Rice Community Center, 2907 N. Watkins St.
- Church Health Crosstown Concourse, 1350 Concourse Ave.
- Orange Mound Community Service Center, 2572 Park Ave.
- Social Suds Resource Center, 1044 S. Bellevue Blvd.

The tax preparation service is aimed at assisting families eligible for the Earned Income Tax Credit, the federal government's largest and most successful anti-poverty program for low-income, working families.

Impact America's SaveFirst initiative is in its fourth year of operation in Memphis. Last year, IRS-certified students from four campuses prepared tax returns for more than 1,100 families, helping them secure more than $1.7 million in tax refunds and saving them more than $440,000 in commercial tax preparation fees.
