

Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

Gazette

Announcements

The Foreign Language Fair was an immense success. There were events in six languages: Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Latin and Spanish. Thank you to Jennifer Johnston, the director of the Fair, and to all who helped make it a success.

Information sessions for Sigma Delta Pi, a national collegiate Hispanic honor society, will take place on Tuesday, April 7 and Friday, April 10 at 12:30 pm in Jones 241. During the sessions, there will be a discussion about the academic qualifications that students must meet to become members of the Spanish Honor Society. For more information, please contact the faculty sponsor Iván Ortega-Santos (rtgsntos@memphis.edu).

Events

The French Club will hold a conversation about the attacks on Charlie Hebdo on Friday, April 3 from 12:30 pm to 1:15 pm in Jones 241.

The Spring 2015 French Film Festival continues next week. All films will be shown with English subtitles at 7:00 pm in the Psychology Auditorium. The remaining films are as follows:

Monday, April 6 - 11.6 (2013)

Wednesday, April 6 - La cage dorée (2013)

Faculty Activities

Errol M. O'Neill presented Inmaculada Gómez Soler's and his research in a talk entitled "Targeting Pragmatic Competence in Class through Videos" at SCOLT's 50th Annual Conference on March 7, 2015 in Atlanta, GA.

Melanie Conroy co-organized the panel "Literary Networks" with Elizabeth Coggeshall (Stanford University) at the American Association of Comparative Literature in Seattle, WA on March 27 and 28. She presented "Social Versus Spatial Networks: Balzac's Human Geography" as a part of the panel.